(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WARM SPRINGS, VA., July 18 .- The unknown man who was torn into pieces by a bulldog at McClung, this county, has improved greatly, and is able to be out again. Until yesterday this man refused to give his name or from whence he came. The following interesting information was obtained from him yesterday, however, by your correspondent:
"My name is W. L. Leonard. Richmond is really my home, but I am and have been for a number of years a rover. I was born and lived to ten years in Pocahontas county, W. Va. My father, who was an expert stonemason, moved to Lexington and aided in the building of the Virginia Military Institute.

I have a daughter in Alabama, who married a doctor of wide repute. I have a son in South Carolina, who is a partner in a large cotton gin manufacturing concern. I have a sister, named Mrs. Myers, living at Webster Springs, W. Va. She

The old gentleman is well educated; has plenty of money and his morals are pure, and he is undoubtedly connected with a fine class of people. He is seventy-three years old, but is yet hale and hearty. He has received the utmost care and attention by Mr. E. L. Sunday Outing. Fun? Well I guess AMMUNITION

The most powerful gun ever made is useless without ammunition. The man behind the gun is, in this respect, like the gun he serves; he must be fed or he is useless. For food is the ammunition of the human body. The man in an advanced stage of starvation can hardly stand or walk. He is too weak to work. To ask him to guide a plow or swing an axe would be mockery. Before he can be of any use he must have food and be nourished back to strength. There are not a great many deaths attributed to actual starvation. Yet thousands of deaths attributed to other causes might be with strict accuracy set down to practical starvation. Starvation is not necessarily a product of poverty. Indeed, of the thousands of the starved and starving the larger part are well-to-do, have plenty to eat and drink, and in general eat enough to sustain the strength. It is not the quantity of food eaten which produces strength, but only so much of it as is digested and assimilated. It is because so many people suffer from some form of stomach "trouble," which prevents proper digestion and assimilation of the food eaten, that they grow weak. As the source of all physical strength is food, so when in spite of food the body grows weak suspicion at once attaches to the stomach and digestive and nutritive systems. And in general the suspicion is well founded. An attack of indigestion is an attack on the very vital center of the body, because from the stomach the nutrition which sustains life is distributed. And yet we speak of indigestion as if it were a malady more annoying than serious.

It is plainly to be seen that if disease of the stomach prevents the proper nutrition of the body, then that loss of nutrition will be shared by every organ of the body -- heart, liver, lungs, kidneys and every other organ having less than the normal nutrition necessary to sustain perfect health and strength. The natural result is heart "trouble," kidney "trouble," liver "trouble," or some other ailment. People who have "doctored" for years for disease of liver, heart, kidneys, lungs, etc., have been completely cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and cures through the stomach diseases of other organs which are the direct result of disease of the stomach and digestive and nutritive tract.

If you are weak, run-down, emaciated, the condition is probably due to loss of nutrition as a result of a diseased condition of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures the diseased stomach and restores the strength.

"I had been troubled with my liver for three years; tried home physicians and a great deal of patent medicine but nothing did me any good," writes Mrs. Della McClendon, of Doucette, Texas.
"I was growing worse all the time, unable to do my housework, when a lady friend advised me to write to or. Pierce and describe my condition. I did so and he prescribed his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I at the began taking it, and by the time I had taken six bottles of the 'Discovery' and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' I was well. I thank God that I learned of your great medicine. Can say I am in good health, and, in fact, am a new person to what I was six months ago."

"I had what my physician called indigestion. He gave me medicine for the trouble but it did me no good," writes Mr. W. H. Wells, of Willard, N. C. "In looking over one of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Books I found my case described exactly. I wrote to him and stated my case. He sent me a descriptive list and hygienic rules. I carried out these as best I could, bought six bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and commenced taking it. A few days later I noticed a great change. Felt like a new man. Before I began the use of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I suffered greatly with pain in stomach, my nerves seemed all 'run-down,' I was very thin in flesh, but now can eat heartily and sleep good at night. I can safely recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to all similar sufferers."

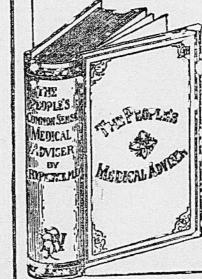

recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to all similar surferers."

"Ten months ago, when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' I could hardly do any work at all; was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Dora Belcher, of Browning, Mo. "Had been complaining for about thirteen years, and my husband had spent all he could earn for doctor bills and medicine, but I did not receive any benefit and thought I could not live very long. My husband suggested that I write to Dr. R. V. Pierce for advice. I did so, received a prompt reply, and after following his kind advice and using his wonderful medicines find that, after thirteen years of suffering, I am enjoying good health. My weight was one hundred and ten when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicines and now it is one hundred and twenty-seven, and I am still improving. I thank God and Dr. Pierce for my present good condition." for my present good condition." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery proves its power by its cure of chronic forms of disease, which have failed to yield to any other treatment. In simpler forms of stomach "trouble" "Golden Medical Discovery" is equally effective. The cure begins with the first dose of medicine. Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines, will offer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It is better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.
